 YESTERDAY morning about half past ten o'clock, Captain Sydney of the ship Edith, whilst walking along the Praya, opposite the Chin Chew Hong, a short distance to the East of the Water Police Station, was suddenly set upon by several Chinese who attacked him from behind, one of them grasping him tightly round the waist, whilst another attempted to seize his watch, whilst Captain Sydney managed to prevent his doing, by grappling with his antagonists, who managed by degrees to bring the struggle nearer the edge of the Praya, when, for the purpose of making their escape, they pushed the luckless Captain into the water. He swam to a Sampan about twenty yards off, in which he cut his saloon and reported the occurrence at the police station.
 Mr. Francis Barclay was also attacked on the Praya by three Chinamen, who were unfortunately more successful than in the previous instance, having managed to possess themselves of his gold watch and chain valued at £20.
